RULE G4 – CANADA REVENUE AGENCY ACCEPTANCE OF PAYMENTS GOODS AND SERVICES TAX/HARMONIZED SALES TAX (GST/HST), EXCISE, TAXATION, AND CUSTOMS PROGRAMS

Scope

1. a. Subject to subsection (b), this Rule outlines the procedures pertaining to the acceptance and processing of GST/HST, Excise¹, Taxation, and Customs payments by CPA Members for the GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, and Customs programs of Canada Revenue Agency (CRA).

Note: Reference to CPA Member as defined in the Introduction to the ACSS CPA Rules Manual under “Member”.

- b. This Rule does not apply to the acceptance and processing of GST/HST remittances administered by the Ministère du revenu du Québec.

Definitions

2. In this rule,
 - a. “Bitonal” means a view in two intensity values (black and white). A Bitonal Image will therefore represent a colour as either black or white.
 - b. “Deposit Advice Information” means the information that is required in the Deposit Advice RC79 form referenced in Appendix III.
 - c. “Direct Clearer” means a Member, other than the Bank of Canada that, on its own behalf, Exchanges items and makes entries into the ACSS. Throughout the Rules, references to Direct Clearer include Group Clearers and Clearing Agents unless the Rule or context otherwise requires.
 - d. “Legible” means able to be read or deciphered by a human viewer.

Arrangements

3. Any branch of any CPA Member may accept GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, and Customs payments for the account of GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, or Customs. Samples of the applicable remittance forms can be found in Appendices II, III and IV attached to this rule.

Remittance Forms

4. a. Subject to the following exception, CRA remittance forms shall conform to section 2.0, Part II of CPA Rule H6 - Rules Pertaining to the Inter-Financial Institution Exchange and Settlement of Bill Payment Remittances.

¹ Effective July 2003, new Excise Tax remittance vouchers will be generated by CRA. They will be for Excise Tax, Duty Tax, Insurance Tax and Air Travellers Security Charges. All existing routing procedures remain unchanged and for an interim period both old Excise and new Excise forms will be circulated.

RULE G4 – CANADA REVENUE AGENCY ACCEPTANCE OF PAYMENTS GOODS AND SERVICES TAX/HARMONIZED SALES TAX (GST/HST), EXCISE, TAXATION, AND CUSTOMS PROGRAMS

Exception: The Transit Number field of the MICR line shall contain a GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, or Customs transit number (institution number “117” with a branch number assigned by CRA) rather than a Corporate Creditor Identification Number (CCIN).

- b. Remittance forms accepted for payment shall be in two parts, both of which are to be presented when payment is made at a branch of a CPA Member.
- c. Both parts of the remittance form shall be stamped with the CPA Member branch date stamp in the designated areas on the reverse side of the remittance form. Payments received during extended business hours shall be date stamped to reflect the next business day.
- d. The appropriate part of the remittance form shall be retained for processing by the CPA Member and the other portion of the remittance form shall be returned to the presenter as a receipt.
- e. CPA Members shall make a reasonable effort to verify that the payment amount on the remittance form is the same as the amount being paid by the presenter and that the GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, or Customs account number appears on the taxpayer’s cheque and remittance form.
- f. A CPA Member shall accept a remittance form only if a payment is being made by the presenter. A remittance form indicating a nil amount owing or a refund claimed shall not be accepted by a CPA Member.

Note: The presenter entitled to a refund shall be instructed to present the remittance form to any CRA office.

- g. Where the original remittance form is not presented to the CPA Member, or where attachments accompany the remittance form, the presenter shall be instructed to make payment directly to any CRA office.
- h. A CPA Member shall send the portion of the remittance form retained in accordance with subsection (c) or a scanned copy of the remittance form to the CRA in accordance with the procedures set out in section 8.

Member Charges

5. CPA Members shall not collect a charge from remitting taxpayers. CPA Members shall be compensated by the Government of Canada in accordance with existing arrangements and practices for federal taxes remitted through financial institutions.

Segregation of Payments and Remittances

 - a. GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, and Customs payments accepted by CPA Members on behalf of CRA shall each be processed as distinct and separate payments.
 - b. Remittance forms shall be differentiated by the MICR encoded characters on each form or by referring to the list of remittance forms in Appendix I of this Rule.

RULE G4 – CANADA REVENUE AGENCY ACCEPTANCE OF PAYMENTS GOODS AND SERVICES TAX/HARMONIZED SALES TAX (GST/HST), EXCISE, TAXATION, AND CUSTOMS PROGRAMS

- c. Remittance forms shall be differentiated by tax program (refer to appendix II) within the Transit Number Field on the MICR line as follows:

1st, 2nd, and 3rd digits: identifies the Department where 122=CRA;

4th and 5th digits: identifies the Tax Program where 01=GST/HST, 03=Excise, 4=Taxation, and 05=Customs; and

7th, 8th and 9th digits: 117

Establishment of Receiver General Concentrator Accounts

7. A Direct Clearer that has centralized processing of acceptance of payments of accounts shall establish a Receiver General concentrator account to which the total of each day's program payments, as determined by each processing data centre, shall be credited. Unless otherwise provided for in this Rule, the clearing and settlement of concentrator accounts shall be handled in accordance with arrangements and practices established between Direct Clearers and the Receiver General for Canada.

Procedures for Remitting by Centralized Processing Operations and Ordering CRA Forms

8. a. Procedures for sending paper remittance forms to the CRA:
- i. Remittance forms shall be batched in separate packages by tax program, in accordance with the MICR encoding requirements identified in subsection 6(c) of this Rule, and date stamped. They shall be batched in bundles of no more than 250 forms.
 - ii. Each bundle shall have attached to it a listing which identifies, in the order in which the remittance forms are bundled, the value of each remittance within the bundle and the total value of the bundle.
 - iii. Recaps, which list and total bundle values for each program, shall be prepared. The total value indicated on each recap shall equal the value remitted to CRA for each tax program.
 - iv. A separate Deposit Advice RC79 (refer to Appendix V) shall be prepared for each package of GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, and Customs remittance forms.
 - v. A copy of the Deposit Advice RC79 shall be emailed to the Winnipeg Tax Centre (refer to Appendix III).
 - vi. Each package of remittance forms, together with copy 1 of the Deposit Advice RC79, the recap and listings attached to each bundle shall be enclosed in a sealed container (e.g. bag, envelope, box, etc.) and addressed to the Winnipeg Tax Centre at the address indicated on the RC79 with the prescribed Shipping Tag/Routing Label.
 - vii. The sealed container(s) shall be collected daily at each processing data centre, in conjunction with Government of Canada Paper Instruments picked up in accordance with Rule G3, by a designated Bank of Canada courier. The pick-up times shall be determined by the Bank of Canada and agreed to by Direct Clearers.

viii. Deposit Advice RC79 may be obtained on-line (refer to Appendix V†).

b. Procedures for sending remittance forms to the CRA electronically:

i. Remittance forms shall be scanned and batched in separate files by tax program, in accordance with the MICR encoding requirements identified in subsection 6(c) of this Rule, and by date stamp of the form. No file shall exceed 40,000 forms.

ii. Each scanned remittance form shall be Legible, Bitonal and created at a minimum image quality standard of 200 DPI.

iii. Each file of scanned remittance forms shall include the Deposit Advice Information, a listing of each remittance form amount in the order in which the scanned remittance forms are batched, and the total value of the file.

Note: Further requirements for the electronic submission formats of the scanned electronic remittance forms can be obtained by contacting the Payment Processing-Electronic Services / Traitement des paiements-Services électroniques (CRA/ARC) at mypay-g@cra-arc.gc.ca.

iv. Each file of scanned remittance forms shall be transmitted to the CRA in a manner agreed to in advance.

v. Each CPA Member that creates and sends scanned remittance forms electronically to the CRA shall retain the original paper forms for a minimum of 10 Business Days after the date it was scanned. These remittance forms shall be destroyed in a secure manner within 120 calendar days after the date it was scanned.

Dishonoured Items/Direct Clearers

9. a. In the event a cheque from a taxpayer in payment of a GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, or Customs remittance is dishonoured by the Drawee institution, the Direct Clearer that initially accepted the cheque shall seek to be reimbursed by CRA as follows:

i. the Direct Clearer shall complete a "Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment" RC506 form (refer to Appendix IV) and fax it along with any relevant documentation, to the Sudbury Tax Centre at the fax number indicated on the RC506;

RULE G4 – CANADA REVENUE AGENCY ACCEPTANCE OF PAYMENTS GOODS AND SERVICES TAX/HARMONIZED SALES TAX (GST/HST), EXCISE, TAXATION, AND CUSTOMS PROGRAMS

- ii. the Sudbury Tax Centre shall process the request for reimbursement by completing Part III (Authorization for Adjustment) of the “Bank Remitted Payment Adjustment” RC506 form and faxing it to the appropriate Direct Clearer contact;
 - iii. upon receipt of the approved Authorization for Adjustment, the Direct Clearer shall debit its concentrator account for the amount shown on the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form, which should equal the amount of the dishonoured cheque used to fund the remittance; and
 - iv. the Direct Clearer shall complete Part IV (Confirmation of Adjustment) of the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form and forward it, along with a printed image copy of the dishonoured cheque, to the Sudbury Tax Centre at the fax number indicated on the RC506.
- b. CRA shall attempt to respond to a request for reimbursement for a dishonoured item within two (2) business days of receipt of such a request.

Enquiries and General Rules for Adjustments

10. a. Enquiries shall be directed to the Sudbury Tax Centre at the fax number indicated on the RC506;
- b. No Adjustment shall be pursued by CRA or CPA Members where the amount of the adjustment is $20.00* or less.
- c. Under no circumstances shall adjustments be effected through the clearing.
- d. Under no circumstances shall a CPA Member adjust the amount on a remittance for the purpose of correcting an error on a previous remittance.
- e. Each adjustment shall be handled individually. Under no circumstances shall a CPA Member combine or net out adjustments.

Adjustments Requested by Direct Clearers or CRA

11. a. Adjustments requested by a Direct Clearer shall be handled as follows:
- i. the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form shall be completed by the Direct Clearer and faxed, along with any relevant documentation, to the Sudbury Tax Centre at the fax number indicated on the RC506;
 - ii. the Sudbury Tax Centre shall process the request for adjustment by completing Part III (Authorization for Adjustment) of the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form and faxing it to the appropriate Direct Clearer contact. Where additional information is required to process the request for adjustment, the Sudbury Tax Centre shall contact the Direct Clearer either by fax or by telephone;

RULE G4 – CANADA REVENUE AGENCY ACCEPTANCE OF PAYMENTS GOODS AND SERVICES TAX/HARMONIZED SALES TAX (GST/HST), EXCISE, TAXATION, AND CUSTOMS PROGRAMS

- iii. upon receipt of the Authorization for Adjustment, the Direct Clearer shall debit or credit the concentrator account for the amount shown on the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form; and
 - iv. the Direct Clearer shall complete Part IV (Confirmation of Adjustment) of the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form and fax it to the Sudbury Tax Centre at the fax number indicated on the RC506.
- b. Adjustments requested by CRA shall be handled as follows:
 - i. a memo containing all the details shall be faxed by CRA to the appropriate Direct Clearer data centre along with a completed “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form;
 - ii. the Direct Clearer shall complete Part IV (Confirmation of Adjustment) of the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form and fax it to the Sudbury Tax Centre at the number indicated on the RC506; and
 - iii. where the amount of the adjustment requires modification, CRA will fax an amended “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form to the Direct Clearer for processing.
- c. CRA and Direct Clearers shall attempt to respond to a request for adjustment within two (2) business days of receipt of such a request.

Misrouted Remittance Forms/Direct Clearers

12. Remittance forms not issued by CRA, which are mistakenly remitted to GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, or Customs, shall be returned to the remitting Direct Clearer in accordance with the following procedures:
- a. the Sudbury Tax Centre shall fax the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form, showing the total amount of the misrouted item(s), to the appropriate Direct Clearer data centre;
 - b. upon receipt of the fax, the Direct Clearer shall debit the concentrator account for the amount shown on the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form;
 - c. the Sudbury Tax Centre shall send the Direct Clearer the misrouted item(s) along with a copy of the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form; and
 - d. upon receipt of the misrouted item(s), the Direct Clearer shall complete the lower portion of the “Bank Remitted Payments Adjustment” RC506 form and fax it to the Sudbury Tax Centre at the fax number indicated on the RC506.

RULE G4 – CANADA REVENUE AGENCY ACCEPTANCE OF PAYMENTS GOODS AND SERVICES TAX/HARMONIZED SALES TAX (GST/HST), EXCISE, TAXATION, AND CUSTOMS PROGRAMS

Remitted by Indirect Clearer, Dishonoured Items/Indirect Clearers, Adjustments/Indirect Clearers

13. a. A CPA Member that does not have centralized processing of acceptance of payments of accounts is encouraged to establish arrangements with a Direct Clearer to process GST/HST, Excise, Taxation, and Customs remittance forms on its behalf.
- b. In the event that an Indirect Clearer has not established arrangements with a Direct Clearer to process CRA remittance forms on its behalf, the Indirect Clearer shall batch the remittance forms in separate packages by tax program as identified in subsection 6(c). Each package of remittance forms shall include a listing (the branch stamp of the CPA Member shall be enfaced on the list) which identifies the value of each remittance and the total value of the package. Each package of remittance forms be mailed, along with a settlement/cheque in favour of the Receiver General for Canada for the total value of the program payment to the Winnipeg Tax Centre (see RC79 form for address).
- c. In the event that an Indirect Clearer has not established arrangements with a Direct Clearer to process CRA remittance forms on its behalf, the Indirect Clearer shall forward a printed image/copy of the dishonoured items, together with the name, address and account number of the tax-payer to the Sudbury Tax Centre at the fax number indicated on the RC506. CRA shall attempt to respond to a request for reimbursement for a dishonoured item within five (5) business days of receipt of such a request.
- d. i. In the event that an Indirect Clearer has not established arrangements with a Direct Clearer to process CRA remittance forms on its behalf, the Indirect Clearer shall:
1. Initiate and receive all requests for adjustment through correspondence, or by fax where possible and appropriate, with the Sudbury Tax Centre; and
 2. Attempt to respond to a request for adjustment and issue a settlement/cheque payable to the Receiver General for Canada within five (5) business days of receipt of such a request.
- ii. CRA shall attempt to respond to a request for adjustment and issue a payment from the Receiver General for Canada within five (5) business days of receipt of such a request.
- iii. Where the adjustment involves misrouted remittance forms, the Sudbury Tax Centre shall send the misrouted item(s), along with a payment from the Receiver General for Canada, to the Indirect Clearer.
